Global Trade in Goods, Services Expanded by 4.7% in 2025 - This Day

The World Trade Organisation (WTO), has revealed that global trade in goods and services expanded approximately by 4.7 per cent in 2025, significantly above the rate of global economic growth at 2.9 per cent. The Deputy Director-General of WTO, Jennifer Nordquist, disclosed this at the launch of the Dubai Multi Commodities Centre's Future of Trade Report 2026. Nordquist emphasised that the WTO would continue to provide the foundation for the large majority of global trade, even as the trading system adapts to new technologies, shifting supply chains and geopolitical uncertainty. She stressed the importance of advancing WTO reform while preserving the predictability and transparency on which businesses depend. Click here to read more.

No new taxes for fuel, telecom – FG - Punch

The Federal Government on Wednesday dismissed reports suggesting it had adopted or was considering the introduction of new taxes on telecommunications services and petroleum products following recommendations contained in the latest IMF Article IV Consultation Report on Nigeria. The government said the reports misrepresented the contents of the IMF report and did not reflect its policy direction, insisting that no new taxes were being planned for either the telecoms or petroleum sectors. In a statement signed by the Head of the Information and Public Relations Unit of the Federal Ministry of Finance, Efe Ovuakporie, the government stressed that recommendations contained in the IMF report were not binding on Nigeria and should not be interpreted as official government policy. Crude output rises as NUPRC targets 1.9mbpd - Punch

Nigeria's crude oil production could rise to 1.9 million barrels per day in the near term following recent improvements in output, the Nigerian Upstream Petroleum Regulatory Commission has said. The Commission Chief Executive of the NUPRC, Oritsemeyiwa Eyesan, disclosed this on Wednesday during a meeting with the Chairman of the Nigeria Revenue Service, Zacch Adedeji, at the NRS headquarters in Abuja. This was contained in a statement issued by the Head of Media and Corporate Communications of the NUPRC, Eniola Akinkuotu, on Wednesday. Eyesan said the country's oil industry had continued to record production growth, noting that crude output reached a peak of 1.86 million barrels per day in May, placing the industry on a stronger recovery path. Nigeria secures $3bn solid minerals investment inflow - Punch

The Federal Government on Wednesday disclosed that Nigeria's solid minerals sector has attracted about $3bn in investments within the last three years, describing the inflow as one of the most significant achievements recorded in the industry's history. The government said the investments, spanning lithium, gold and other strategic minerals, reflected growing investor confidence in reforms introduced by the administration of President Bola Tinubu and signalled stronger prospects for the sector in the coming years. The disclosure was made at a press briefing ahead of the 5th African Natural Resources and Energy Investment Summit scheduled to hold from June 23 to June 25, 2026, at the State House Conference Centre, Abuja. This research report (the "Report") is issued by Chapel Hill Denham Research, a department within Chapel Hill Denham Securities Limited ("Chapel Hill Denham"). Chapel Hill Denham is incorporated under the laws of the Federal Republic of Nigeria and is a company regulated by the Securities and Exchange Commission in Nigeria and the Nigerian Stock Exchange.

The information contained herein is confidential and is solely for the use of those persons to whom it has been addressed. The information contained in this Report is not intended for distribution to the public and may not be disclosed, altered, reproduced, redistributed, or published in whole or in part for any purpose without the prior written consent of Chapel Hill Denham. Neither Chapel Hill Denham nor its advisers, directors, employees, or any of its affiliates accepts any liability whatsoever for the actions of third parties in this respect. By receiving this document, you will not be deemed a client of Chapel Hill Denham or any of its affiliates. Clients of Chapel Hill Denham and of its affiliates, who read this Report, should assess their own investment objectives and financial capabilities when taking investment decisions.

The analyst(s), (whose name(s) is given at the beginning of the Report), produced this Report independently of Chapel Hill Denham or its affiliates and unless expressly stated to the contrary, independently of the issuer of security or securities, covered in the Report, and have done so using publicly available information. Opinions expressed in this Report are those of the analyst(s) and unless expressly stated to the contrary, are not the opinion or position of Chapel Hill Denham or any of its affiliates. No part of the compensation of the analyst(s) is or will be related or linked to the views or recommendation(s) given in this Report.

The information in this Report is provided in summary form only and does not purport to be complete. This Report has been issued for information purposes only and should not be construed in any circumstances as an offer to sell or buy any security or any other financial instrument nor shall it (or any part of it) form the basis of or act as any inducement to enter into, any contract or commitment whatsoever with respect to any security or any other financial instruments. Investments in general involve some degree of risk, including risk of loss of capital. Chapel Hill Denham may not have taken any steps to ensure that the securities referred to in this report are suitable for any particular investor. Accordingly, this Report should not be used as a substitution for exercising independent judgement and has no regard to the specific investment objectives, financial situation, or particular needs of any particular investor/recipient. If in doubt, please consult an independent investment adviser.

The content of this Report is based upon publicly available information from various sources that are believed to be reliable, though not verified independently. Accordingly, no liability is accepted for errors or omissions of fact; no representation or warranty, express or implied, is made concerning its accuracy, reasonableness or completeness of the information presented. All projections, valuations and statistical analyses are provided for information purposes only. They may be based on subjective assessments and assumptions and may use one among alternative methodologies that produce different results and to the extent they are based on historical information, they should not be relied upon as an accurate prediction of future performance. Neither Chapel Hill Denham nor its advisers, directors, employees, or any of its affiliates accept any liability whatsoever for any direct or indirect loss arising from the use of this document or its contents.

This document includes certain forward-looking statements, estimates and projections with respect to the future performance of securities traded in the Nigerian Capital Markets. Such statements, estimates and projections may reflect various assumptions concerning anticipated economic developments that have not been independently verified. Recipients are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. All information, opinions expressed are given as of the date hereof and are subject to change without notice. Accordingly, Chapel Hill Denham expressly disclaims to the fullest extent permitted by law any obligation or undertaking to disseminate any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements or information contained herein.

Past performance should not be taken as an indication or guarantee of future performance, and no representation or warranty, express or implied, is made regarding future performance. While due care has been used in the preparation of forecast information, actual results may vary in a materially positive or negative manner. The price, value of and income from any of the securities or financial instruments mentioned in this Report can fall as well as rise.

The investments contained or referred to in this Report may not be suitable for you and it is recommended that you consult an independent investment advisor if you are in doubt. Nothing in this report constitutes investment, legal, accounting or tax advice or a representation that any investment or strategy is suitable or appropriate to your individual circumstances or otherwise constitutes a personal recommendation to you. Chapel Hill Denham does not offer advice on the tax consequences of investment, and you are advised to contact an independent tax adviser.

Neither this Report nor any copy or part thereof is intended for distribution, or transfer, either directly or indirectly to, or use by, any person or entity that is a citizen or resident or located in any locality, state, country or other jurisdiction where such distribution, transfer, publication, availability or use would be contrary to law or regulation or which would require any registration or licensing within such jurisdiction. The analyst(s) (as author(s) of this Report) and Chapel Hill Denham are not subject to the laws of other countries, notably the United States of America ("US"), the member states of the European Union ("EU") or the United Kingdom ("UK, during and after its membership of the EU) as these laws may affect the publication and distribution of this report. Accordingly, protections conferred by or under laws of other countries would not apply.

The analyst(s) (as authors of this Report) are not registered with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority in the US, the Financial Conduct Authority ("FCA") and the Prudential Regulation Authority ("PRA") of the UK. Neither Chapel Hill Denham nor any of its affiliates is not authorised by the FCA or PRA. Accordingly, no liability for compliance with those laws, which respect to this report, is accepted by Chapel Hill Denham, its directors, employees, or any of its affiliates.

Chapel Hill Denham, its directors, employees, or any of its affiliates may have or may have had interests in any of the companies contained herein or hold long or short positions in any of the securities mentioned herein. Directors and employees of Chapel Hill Denham or its affiliates may serve or may have served as officers or directors of the companies contained herein. Chapel Hill Denham is required by the Nigerian Securities & Exchange Commission to make certain disclosures on shareholdings of its directors and Personal Account Trading of its analysts.

Chapel Hill Denham and its affiliates may act or may have acted as market maker in the securities contained herein. Chapel Hill Denham or its affiliates may have or may have had a relationship with or provide or have provided investment banking, investment management, and/or financial services to the companies contained herein; Chapel Hill Denham however relies on information barriers, such as 'Chinese walls' to control the flow of information. Accordingly, the analyst(s) and other members of the Research Department of Chapel Hill Denham do not receive any non-public information regarding transactions or investments of Chapel Hill Denham and any of its affiliates and do not take part in its internal meetings.

Furthermore, it is a policy of Chapel Hill Denham that no department or affiliate influences the opinions, estimates, forecast or recommendations of the Research Department, nor privy to the contents or recommendations of the Research Department's reports and recommendations ahead of their publications. It is also the policy of Chapel Hill Denham that members of the Research Department are not privy to knowledge of advisory mandates, or other fiduciary relationships, engaged in by Chapel Hill Denham or any of its affiliates.
